

Military Deployment Tuition/Fee Refund for Iowa Students

POLICY

Iowa students who are ordered to state/federal military service or duty as members of the National Guard or reserve forces of the United States have the following options:

- Withdraw from all courses and receive a full refund of tuition and mandatory fees.
- Complete all courses at a later date, receiving incomplete course grades. Tuition and mandatory fees for all these courses will not be refunded.
- Drop some courses and receive a refund for these courses. Refund of tuition and mandatory fees will not be refunded for those courses whereby arrangements were made to complete for grade or complete at a later date.

The above options also apply to Iowa students who are spouses with a dependent child of a member of the National Guard or reserve forces of the United States and the spouse is deployed to active service or duty.
