

BLESSING-RIEMAN

College of Nursing & Health Sciences

Blessing-Rieman College of Nursing & Health Sciences recognizes and fulfills its obligations under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and similar state laws. Blessing-Rieman College of Nursing & Health Sciences is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to qualified disabled learners.

A student requesting a reasonable accommodation must:

- 1) Self-identify the disability to his/her advisor and/or college personnel who notifies the College's ADA Coordinator
- 2) Meet with the College's ADA Coordinator who reviews ADA eligibility, rights, and responsibilities
- 3) Request reasonable accommodation via College's ADA forms(provided to student by ADA Coordinator)
- 4) Provide the College's Academic Committee with documentation that establishes and supports the need for accommodation.

The College's Academic Committee uses documentation to design a plan that provides an equal opportunity to meet the standards of the nursing program. The plan is shared with the student, academic advisor, the College's ADA Coordinator, and the student's individual course instructors; all with the student's permission.
