

BLESSING-RIEMAN

College of Nursing & Health Sciences

All students are required to sign the Honor Code annually during the first month of each academic year. Any student who chooses not to sign the Honor Code is not permitted to attend classes or clinical, or make up any missed assignments. Signed Honor Codes are placed in the student's record.

The Blessing-Rieman College of Nursing & Health Sciences (College) Honor Code states:

As a student and representative of the College, I commit to uphold the moral principles of the American Nurse's Association Code of Ethics for Nurses in the classroom, clinical area and during any activity or event associated with the College. I commit to conduct myself in a manner that will uphold the essential nursing values and principles of altruism, equality, esthetics, freedom, human dignity, justice, truth, and caring. I pledge to assume responsibility and accountability for all written assignments and verbal and written communication. I agree that I am responsible for the academic integrity of my work and will not misrepresent any work or receive unauthorized assistance. The work that I complete will be my own and any cited work by another author will be given proper credit. I know cheating and plagiarism are not tolerated and I support consequences for participating in such activities. I know that presenting dishonest work and/or a disrespectful attitude will negatively reflect on my reputation, as well as the College. Therefore I will maintain respect for the property of others and the College. I pledge to uphold the Honor Code and Academic Honesty Policy. I will report students who choose not to preserve the Honor Code of the College. Failure to report a violation, in itself, is a violation of the Honor Code. Any student who reports an act of misconduct will be protected from any repercussions and his or her confidentiality will be maintained within the guidelines of the Academic Honesty Policy.
